By the end of this course, you should be able to say the following about your level of English*:

UNDERSTANDING (LISTENING AND READING)

- I can understand enough to follow extended speech on abstract and complex topics.
- I can generally understand everyone I talk to, though I may need to confirm some details, especially if the accent is unfamiliar.
- I can understand in detail a wide range of lengthy, complex texts, likely to be encountered in social or academic (school) life, though I may want time to reread them.

PRODUCTION (SPEAKING AND WRITING)

- I can express myself fluently and appropriately, adapting a level of formality appropriate to the circumstances.
- I can select from a readily available range of expressions to preface my remarks appropriately and to follow up what other people say.
- I can give clear, well-structured descriptions of complex subjects.
- I can express myself fluently and spontaneously, except occasionally, when speaking about a conceptually difficult subject.
- I can write clear, well-structured texts on complex topics in an appropriate style with good grammatical control.

QUALITY OF LANGUAGE

- I have a good command of a broad vocabulary. I do sometimes have to search for expressions but I can find alternatives to express what I want to say.
- I maintain a high degree of grammatical control in speech and writing.
